

VETERINARY ADVANCEMENT

My cat, Banjo, had a nasal biopsy and was diagnosed with cancer of the eye & nose.

Banjo's health improved drastically! He could breathe well again and his pain was minimal.

Vet recommended chemotherapy that specifically targeted Banjo's type of cancer.

Biomedical research and animal testing made this possible – it saved my cat's life and gave him extra time with our family.

