Slugs help with studies of short and longterm memory.

Guide dogs can help with people who have trouble seeing.

Rats help with nerve damage treatment.

Cows helped with curing smallpox.

Mice were used to help make COVID 19 vaccines.

Opossums help with studies of the central nervous system and immune system.

Armadillos are treatment for leprosy.

Pigeons can help with studies of coronary heart diseases.

Animal research saves lives.